LAUDA FLIGHTS FOR WINTER 2020/21 BOOKABLE

From 24,99€ for example to PALMA, FARO,
COPENHAGEN OR SEVILLE

Lauda, Austria's No. 1 low fare airline, is publishing its winter flight schedule for 2020/21 and thus once again is offering travellers a perfect mix of city & beach destinations for the cold season.

The Lauda flight programme for the winter includes destinations in Italy, Spain and Scandinavia, which will be served from Dusseldorf several times a week at an unbeatable price/performance ratio. Among other top destinations, Lauda also flies to hotspots like Alicante, Stockholm and Naples. The many sightseeing, shopping and culinary highlights of the winter flight schedule are waiting to be discovered.

For those who love the sun, Lauda has once again included the most popular winter destinations with cosy temperatures in its flight schedule. Those who want to escape the cold can land several times a week in Marrakech or Faro. In addition, Beirut and the Canary Islands are again included into the flight schedule. From 29,99 € you can fly to Fuerteventura, Las Palmas or Tenerife.

Furthermore, the popular Balearic island 'Palma de Mallorca' is also included in the winter flight schedule. Lauda will operate this route 11 times a week from Dusseldorf.

All destinations of the standard winter flight schedule can now be booked at an unbeatable price. The entire offer, as well as detailed flight times, can be found at www.laudamotion.com and in the Lauda App.

Lauda CEO, Andreas Gruber, said:

"We are happily looking forward to offer once again, the perfect mix of city & beach destinations for the cold season for passengers who are flying from our base in Dusseldorf. Our short- & mediums-haul offer in winter 2020/21 will include 15 top destinations from Dusseldorf at an unbeatable price-performance ratio."
